Renee,
Thank you for letting me know you received documents.
This week's storm is causing havoc with our phones, internet and computers.

Good news though, our IT Chris is receiving the hardware, servers etc to bring us to the 21st century.
We are very lucky to have him.
He plans on refurbishing my computer soon.
His priority is getting the tribe stable. Tribal finance has the main server which goes down often.

Anyway. Thanks again.
Cynthia

Good Morning,

Here's the 424a, because I don't think the changed version went through on the grants.gov. last week. Please except this form.

We are continuing to have technical problems with our internet but I am told there is a solution in the horizon. To further complicate things, I do not have a printer that can scan, hence, I have to scan from receptionist desk to our executive secretary then on to whomever. I just bought my printer last year and it is already down and I am not willing to pay 671.42 for new drums! Got a lemon I suppose.

HAPPY MONDAY!

Cynthia O.
